LONDON AND CITY Partners

1.23 Payne Hicks Beach has appointed partner Matt Ingham to its citizenship and immigration practice from Mishcon de Reya. Ingham advises on complex international protection claims involving political persecution and corporate raiding. He is particularly known for advising high profile individuals in connection with some of the most significant cases in the asylum field. He also has experience of defending extradition requests, as well as human rights, reputation protection and judicial review claims. He has also been instructed to challenge Interpol red flag notices. He has extensive experience of advising on non-contentious immigration matters, including Tier 1 (investor) and indefinite leave to remain applications.
