

The firm very much supports the Ellen MacArthur Cancer Trust which takes youngsters recovering from cancer and other serious illnesses on sailing trips. The Trust recently had five boats competing in the Round the Island race, an annual event whereby boats race around the Isle of Wight. This year over 1,500 boats entered with about 16,000 people competing. The conditions were blustery with some sea sicknesses but all five boats, with 24 youngsters on board, completed the course. Dame Ellen, the founder of the Trust, raced on board one of the Trust's boats which proudly flew a PHB branded flag.

