

Charlotte Henshall

"Charlotte Henshall provides great support"

The Legal 500 UK 2020

Email: chenshall@phb.co.uk

Telephone: 020 7465 4389 -

Linkedin Profile:

Charlotte is a solicitor in the Dispute Resolution department, with particular focus on commercial litigation, contentious trusts & probate disputes and regulatory matters.

Charlotte has experience in a broad range of contentious matters, with particular expertise in multi-jurisdictional disputes.

Charlotte graduated with a First Class LLB (Hons) in Law at the University of Hull.

Charlotte completed her training contract with Ogier in Guernsey and qualified into their Dispute Resolution department before joining Payne Hicks Beach in 2018.

Qualified March 2016, joined Payne Hicks Beach 2018.

Articles & publications eprivateclient: Why do siblings go to court over a parent's Will?

<https://www.paminsight.com/epc/article/contesting-will-grounds-undue-influence-why-do-siblings-go-court-over-parents-will> eprivateclient: The ongoing importance of the statutory power of advancement (co-author alongside Jessica Henson) <https://www.paminsight.com/epc/article/ongoing-importance-statutory-power-advancement>

Financial Times online: Answer to the reader question "Can I keep my family's estate intact despite my siblings' wishes?" <https://www.ft.com/>