Linkedin Profile:

Orlaith advises clients in relation to a broad range of family law issues arising in contemplation of marriage, during cohabitation and on the breakdown of a relationship. Her work covers all areas of family law, including divorce, financial remedy proceedings, obtaining/defending non-molestation and occupation orders, cohabitation issues and private law children law matters. These issues often also have an international dimension or the involvement of competing jurisdictions.

Orlaith read Politics and Philosophy in Dublin before qualifying as a solicitor.

Qualified December 2016, joined Payne Hicks Beach in March 2020.
