Rosamond specialises in tax and estate planning advice for individual private clients, families and trustees, onshore and offshore.

Rosamond helps families to plan, advising on estate and capital taxes, inheritance matters, wills, trusts and other financial structures. Mental capacity is critical to estate planning matters, and Rosamond advises on Lasting Powers of Attorney and Court of Protection applications. Difficulties can arise from maladministration of probates or breaches of trust, fiduciary or investment obligations, or when the laws of various jurisdictions internationally conflict. Rosamond can advise beneficiaries in these circumstances and is also experienced at defending executors and trustees who are subject to complaints from aggrieved beneficiaries.

Rosamond is listed in Chambers HNW 2021, Chambers UK 2021 and The Legal 500 UK 2021 as a ranked top private client solicitor specialising in private wealth law, contentious trusts & estates and agriculture and landed estates.

Comments to Chambers HNW and the Legal 500 UK advise that Rosamond "is wonderful and definitely has a unique skill set," that "she has considerable litigation skills and is also very good on planning," that "she is calm and thorough and conveys her client's position clearly and robustly," and that "she is very bright and great to work with, a sensible lawyer, advises her clients sensibly and is an original thinker who is good at strategy tactics." The law directories recognise that "she speaks several languages and is very good on the international scene as a result - she speaks both fluent German and Arabic," that "she has a rare combination of skills and a very interesting background" and that "she is very competent and a real consummate private client lawyer with strong dispute-handling skills."

Rosamond is listed in privateclient's 50 Most Influential 2020. She has been included in the Citywealth Leaders List for many years and endorsed by Who's Who Legal: Private Client.
