

Christmas Jumper Day 2015

08 January 2016

Friday 18 December 2014 saw the staff at Payne Hicks Beach don their Christmas jumpers to raise money for the firm's charities, the Ellen MacArthur Cancer Trust and Coram's Fields.

There were even more jumpers on display this year and it was great to see all the different styles from those purchased to homemade designs.

The staff voted for the "best" and "worst" Christmas jumpers. Last year's "best" jumper winner, Justin Dunlop, secured the most votes this year for both the "best" and "worst" categories with his homemade creation! In second place for the "best" jumper was Andrew Tose.

This year we raised £30.48 to be split equally between our firm's charities, the Ellen MacArthur Cancer Trust and Coram's Fields. Our thanks to all who took part and kindly donated.
