

The London Legal Walk 2016

20 May 2016

Team Payne Hicks Beach was delighted to take part in the London Legal Walk on Monday 16 May 2016.

Congratulations to team members: Peter Black, Kathryn Bradbury, Josh Moger, Janice Okuns, Rhona Azir, Isabella Savill, Isobel Symonds, Emily Willes, Luke Scarratt, Tanya Barham and Christine Brown who completed the 10km charity walk through central and legal London.

The London Legal Walk is an extremely important event that raises hundreds of thousands of pounds to support free legal advice charities in London and the South East. Teams in the walk come from law firms, chambers, in-house legal teams, law schools and the judiciary. Walkers include lawyers, staff, friends and even clients. Lord Dyson, Master of the Rolls, Patron of London Legal Support Trust was walking with the Lord Chief Justice in a large team of judges and staff from the Royal Courts of Justice. This event was organised by The London Legal Support Trust and supports the work of voluntary legal centres in social welfare law with funds raised from the commercial legal sector.

To date, a total of £1,332.50 has been raised.

<http://uk.virginmoneygiving.com/PayneHicksBeach>