

The London Legal Walk 2020: 10,000 Steps for Justice

29 June 2020

Payne Hicks Beach took part in 10,000 Steps for Justice on Monday 8 June which was the original date planned for the 2020 London Legal Walk.

10,000 Steps for Justice was a virtual event giving our walkers the flexibility to take part in the comfort of their living room, in a local park or on their lunch break. It was a great opportunity to engage family and colleagues in this vital cause and re-ignite a strong sense of community across the legal sector as the country continues to go through this difficult period of isolation.

In light of the COVID-19 outbreak, there will be a significant rise in emergency funding applications from advice agencies to their grants fund as they deal with the ongoing situation. Fundraising for free legal advice services is therefore more critical than ever if agencies are to continue doing such a fantastic job in preventing homelessness, resolving debt problems, gaining care for the elderly, and fighting discrimination and exploitation.

The Payne Hicks Beach Team, who took part in the 10,000 Steps for Justice were Stuart Cochlin, Kelly Gerrard, Orla Devereaux, Imogen Lindsley, Maya Mills, Christine Brown and Caroline Ward. Huge thanks to our Payne Hicks Beach Team for taking part in this fundraising event which has been supported by staff and by the Payne Hicks Beach Partners who have made their own donation.

To sponsor the team you can do so via the link below. Any donation would be very much appreciated.

<https://uk.virginmoneygiving.com/PHB20>