

How to protect digital assets in your Will - Emily Grosvenor-Taylor for eprivateclient

25 January 2021

Article by Emily Grosvenor-Taylor, Senior Associate in the leading Private Client department at Payne Hicks Beach, in which she sets out how you can protect your digital assets in your Will, first published online in eprivateclient on 22 January 2021 and reproduced with kind permission.

Emily is an expert private client solicitor advising on both UK and international private client issues for individuals, trustees and family offices and deals with UK and cross-border wills and succession planning as well as capital tax planning and philanthropy. She also advises charity trustees and individual philanthropists on charity law issues including establishing charitable structures and good governance.

<https://www.paminsight.com/epc/article/how-to-protect-digital-assets-in-your-will>

---

For further information, please contact Emily Grosvenor-Taylor by email or call on 020 7465 4300

---

Click below to read Emily's article in eprivateclient