

Obstacles to 'comprehensive' land registration by 2030

28 February 2020

Article by Jeremy Lowe and Venetia Taylor, Associates and landed estates and agriculture specialist lawyers in the Property Department, who address the Land Registry's plans to achieve "comprehensive" registration by 2030 and the difficulties that stand in the way, first published in EG on 28 February 2020 and reproduced with kind permission.

For further information please contact either by email Jeremy Lowe or Venetia Taylor or call on 020 7465 4300.

Click below to read Jeremy and Venetia's article in EG