

Sarah Williams writes for the International Comparative Legal Guide - Family Law 2021

04 September 2020

Sarah Williams, Legal Director and Head of Surrogacy, Fertility, Adoption & Modern Family in the leading Family department at Payne Hicks Beach, is a contributing author of the recently published International Comparative Legal Guide - Family Law 2021. In her chapter "Surrogacy: Where are we Now?" she discusses the historical context of surrogacy in the UK, the case of X, Re [2020] EWFC 39 and, in conclusion, provides her expert final observations, first published in ICLG - Family Law 2021 on 28 August 2020 and reproduced with kind permission.

<https://iclg.com/practice-areas/family-laws-and-regulations/3-surrogacy-where-are-we-now>

Sarah is an expert in complex international surrogacy, fertility and modern family law, in addition to having extensive experience in all children related litigation. Sarah represents internationally renowned figures from the fields of sports and media and is adept at handling all her cases with the utmost discretion whilst delivering the best outcome for her clients.

For further information, please contact Sarah Williams Legal Director and Head of Surrogacy, Adoption, Fertility & Modern Family by email or telephone on 020 7693 5821.

Click below to read Sarah's chapter in the International Comparative Legal Guide - Family Law 2021