

British Legal Awards 2015: Payne Hicks Beach shortlisted

07 October 2015

Payne Hicks Beach is delighted to announce that their leading Private Client department has been shortlisted as Private Client Team of Year in the British Legal Awards.

The British Legal Awards are the leading awards for the UK's thriving business law community acting as a showcase for the achievements of one of the country's most successful sectors. Hosted by Legal Week in association with The City of London Law Society, this glittering awards ceremony is attended by 1,000 lawyers, representing the cream of the UK's legal community.

The legal sector contributes more than £20bn to the UK economy, £4bn of which is derived from exports. The 27 categories have been carefully chosen to reflect the variety of work undertaken by business lawyers working at law firms and in company legal departments.

A major feature of these awards is the credibility of the judging process as the winners are decided by an independent judging panel, chaired by Alasdair Douglas, chairman of the City of London Law Society. The panel is made up of general counsel and other senior members of the legal community, including several former law firm managing partners. This year's ceremony will take place at Old Billingsgate Market on 25 November.
