

Citywealth Top 10 family lawyers with high-profile child law cases 2016

26 January 2016

Congratulations to Ian Connell, partner in the leading Family department at Payne Hicks Beach, who features in the Citywealth list of Top 10 family lawyers with high-profile child law cases 2016, first published in Citywealth Weekly on 22 January 2016.

Payne Hicks Beach is delighted that Ian features in this list and his excellence in this specialist area of family law has been recognised.

Citywealth writes that family law has always been an integral part of the private client industry but never more so than in 2016 with high profile, multi-jurisdiction divorces involving billions but also with increasingly complex and emotionally charged arrangements for children.
