

Ellen MacArthur Cancer Trust

23 November 2012

Payne Hicks Beach is a long time supporter of the Ellen MacArthur Cancer Trust which specialise in taking young persons suffering from cancer on sailing trips so to help restore their confidence. The firm recently hosted an evening event for the Trust and some of its supporters with a fascinating insight into the workings of the Trust being provided by Dame Ellen and other speakers.

Our Richard Butcher is a Trustee. Please contact him if you want any information about the Trust.
