

Family Law Awards 2020: Joshua Moger shortlisted for Family Law Young Solicitor of the Year

09 September 2020

We are delighted to announce that Joshua Moger, Senior Associate in the Family department, has been shortlisted for Family Law Young Solicitor of the Year at the Family Law Awards 2020.

The Family Law Awards is a highly prestigious event, celebrating the success and achievements of family lawyers and the vital contribution that they make to society. These awards recognise excellence in family law and it is testament to Joshua's astute technical expertise and dedication to his clients that has seen him shortlisted for Family Law Young Solicitor of the Year 2020.

Commenting on Joshua's shortlisting at the Family Law Awards 2020, Rebecca Cockcroft/Philip McGuirk, Co-Head of the Family Department said: "We congratulate Joshua on being shortlisted for Family Law Young Solicitor of the Year 2020. Such a worthy recognition reflects Joshua's professional skill in all areas of family law coupled with his unstinting commitment to his clients. We are immensely proud of Joshua who is one of a number of fantastic young family lawyers in our Family department that are emerging as future family law leaders as they continue to ensure our clients receive the high quality and exemplary levels of service for which the Family department and the firm is known for."

Joshua comments: "I am delighted to be shortlisted for Family Law Young Solicitor of the Year 2020. This is in no small part down to the support of the partners in the family department and the faith they have put in me, as well as the clients and fellow professionals who endorsed me for the award. It is an honour to be shortlisted amongst four excellent young family solicitors."

The winners will be announced at the online Family Law Awards Ceremony on 25 November.
