

Fiona Shackleton receives Outstanding Achievement in Legal Services Award at The Legal 500 UK Awards

13 February 2019

Fiona Shackleton, partner in Payne Hicks Beach's leading Family department has won the prestigious Outstanding Achievement in Legal Services prize at The Legal 500 UK Awards 2019.

In addition to the practice awards, The Legal 500 UK gives an Outstanding Achievement award. This year, The Legal 500 UK chose to honour Fiona as one of a shortlist of women who are either still working in private practice (or who originally came from private practice) who are making a real difference to the profession through their work. In an industry where gender balance remains a big issue, we are proud that Fiona has received such an accolade and serves as role models for future generations of women.

The Legal 500 UK Awards 2019 took place on 6 February 2019 at The Great Hall, Guildhall, London.
