16 November 2016

Frederick Bjørn and Basil Dixon, partners in Payne Hick's Beach's leading Private Client department, have been awarded Gold Winner accolades at the Citywealth Future Leaders 2016 Awards.

Frederick is the Gold Winner in the category of 'Business Development Initiative of the Year' for his Scandinavian practice and Basil is the 'Gold Winner in the Lawyer of the Year – Partner' category.

The top gold award wins for both Frederick and Basil cement their credentials as leading lights in the legal and professional service sectors and in turn is a reflection of the quality and dedicated service they, and also the firm, provide to their clients.

Alastair Murdie, Senior Partner and Head of the Private Client department comments: "Both Frederick and Basil play a pivotal role in our leading Private Client department at Payne Hicks Beach and their credentials as leaders of the professional service sector are rightly being recognised. Both Frederick and Basil personify our firm's core values and I extend my congratulations to both of them on these most worthy honours."

Those listed were selected after extensive editorial research and following recommendations from industry peers, charities and ultra-high net worth clients. The list recognises the study and commitment that has enabled them to advance in the industry.
