

Melissa Ellis shortlisted in the Future Leaders Awards 2019

15 July 2019

Payne Hicks Beach is delighted to announce that Melissa Ellis, Associate in the Private Client department, has been shortlisted for Lawyer of the Year - Associate in the Future Leaders Awards 2019. This worthy recognition highlights Melissa's expertise in her specialist field of law, coupled with her outstanding commitment and care providing bespoke advice to her clients.

The awards programme is now in its fifth year and champions young professionals in the wealth sector and highlights the leaders under forty of today and tomorrow. The philosophy of the contest is to support future leaders who excel at work but who also make an important contribution to society. The shortlist is based on submissions, judges' recommendation and editorial research.

Winners will be selected following both public voting and judging by a panel of global industry experts. Public voting is now open until 15 October 2019 and the winners will be announced an awards ceremony on 13 November 2019.
