

Payne Hicks Beach celebrates third Bencher appointment

21 December 2011

Payne Hicks Beach is delighted to announce that Baroness Shackleton has been invited to become an honorary Bencher of Inner Temple. She is the third partner in the firm to be given such an accolade as the firm already has two Benchers. Graham Brown, former senior partner, is an honorary Bencher of Lincoln's Inn and Peter Stockwell, now a Consultant with the firm but previously a partner in the firm's Dispute Resolution department, is an honorary Bencher of Gray's Inn. It is believed the firm is unique in having not just one but three solicitors made benchers of the Inns of Court.
