

Payne Hicks Beach client Lawrence Clarke goes from strength to strength

10 May 2010

British hurdler Lawrence Clarke, a client of Payne Hicks Beach, has continued his rise to the top of UK athletics with more national wins. Having been awarded the title of British Male Junior Athlete of the Year last year he has gone on to win the Nation U23 Championships, the English Senior Championships, as well as coming third in the British Senior Championships. at the 47th Annual British Athletics Writers Association Dinner.

As well as competing in Europe this summer, Lawrence will be taking part in the London Grand Prix in August.

Lawrence is one of a number of young, talented British athletes tipped for success at the London 2012 Olympics. Earlier this year Lawrence won gold at the European Junior Championships as well as holding the British Junior Record. Lawrence is coached by Malcolm Arnold, who also coached Colin Jackson.

Lawrence said that he was grateful for all the support he has had this year, especially from Malcolm Arnold and is looking forward to 2012.

Richard Butcher, Head of Sports at Payne Hicks Beach said 'We are delighted with Lawrence's achievements this year and intend to continue to offer our support to Lawrence through to 2012 and beyond'.
