

Payne Hicks Beach is a double Lex 100 Winner for 2016/17

04 October 2016

Payne Hicks Beach has been announced as a double winner in the Lex 100 2016/17, firstly in the Quality of Work category where it is commented that “Payne Hicks Beach scores highly for its 'better quality of work'” and secondly as a winner in the Living Up to Expectations category.

The Lex 100 survey gathered over 3,000 anonymous responses from trainees at 173 law firms across the UK.

Further information about applying for a training contract at Payne Hicks Beach can be found on the trainee section.