

Payne Hicks Beach is selected to join UBS Private Wealth Referral Panel

25 February 2015

Payne Hicks Beach is delighted to announce that they have been selected to join the Private Wealth Referral Panel of UBS. Andrew Berry, the head of Commercial Property, was invited by UBS to present to their team and his application on behalf of the firm was successful.

Peter Black, Managing Partner, comments: "We are extremely proud that Andrew Berry and his colleagues at Payne Hicks Beach have been selected by UBS to join their Private Wealth Referral Panel. It's an honour to be recognised by UBS we look forward to the future."

The UBS Private Wealth Referral Panel is a select group of professionals who have been benchmarked by UBS to provide their high net worth private clients with the best legal advice in all areas of UK law.

Payne Hicks Beach is able to offer incisive, straightforward and solution led advice. Our structure and commitment to outstanding client service means that our specialist advisers work closely with each other to deliver seamless advice across all our practice areas.

The Payne Hicks Beach team is led by partner Andrew Berry (Property) and comprised of partners Alice Palmer (Private Client), Philip McGuirk (Family), Dominic Crossley (Dispute Resolution), Jonathan Gatward (Company & Commercial), consultant Rebecca Cockcroft (Family) and solicitor Marisa Beccarelli (Property).