

Payne Hicks Beach shortlisted for Private Client Team of the Year 2016

18 March 2016

We are delighted to announce that Payne Hicks Beach has been shortlisted for the inaugural Solicitors Journal Private Client Team of the Year Award 2016.

The Solicitors Journal Awards recognise brilliance in a changing legal world. The Payne Hicks Beach Private Client team invests time understanding their clients so that they can provide specialist legal advice at the highest level. The team is able to draw on many decades of experience to guide their clients through the challenges they face as the world evolves. While laws and taxes change with frightening regularity, the team remains alert to developments and puts their own research and thinking at the disposal of their clients. The nomination for the Solicitors Journal Private Client Team of the Year Award 2016 is testament to the significant strength and expertise coupled with outstanding client care provided by the Payne Hicks Beach Private Client practice.

The awards are due to take place on 25 May at the Grand Connaught Rooms when the winners will be announced. The Solicitors Journal Awards will be hosted by the BBC's Andrew Marr as Solicitors Journal also celebrates 160 years of legal publishing.

For more information on the awards please visit the Solicitors Journal website found Solicitors Journal Awards 2016.
