

Payne Hicks Beach top ranked in Chambers UK 2021 legal directory

23 October 2020

Following the publication of Chambers UK 2021 legal directory, we are delighted to be top-ranked (Band 1) in Family and also to receive firm rankings for Defamation/Reputation Management and Agriculture & Rural Affairs, as well as having lawyers identified as leading individuals and rankings for Fiona Shackleton as a Star Individual and Dominic Crossley as a Band 1 lawyer.

Independent and research-based, the Chambers UK guide recognises the UK's top lawyers in their specialist fields of law. We are extremely proud that both the firm has received top rankings in specialist practice areas and that our expert practitioners are recognised as top lawyers.

Chambers UK 2021 ranks Payne Hicks Beach in the following practice areas with accompanying leading top ranked individuals:

Agriculture & Rural Affairs – Simon Blackburn, Robert Brodrick and Jeremy Lowe

Defamation/Reputation Management - Dominic Crossley and Hanna Basha

Family/Matrimonial - Baroness Shackleton of Belgravia, Rebecca Cockcroft, Philip McGuirk, Ian Airey Nicholas Bennett, Fiona Brown and Ben Parry-Smith

Immigration: Business - Kathryn Bradbury

Immigration: Personal - Kathryn Bradbury

Editorial quotes include:

"Their attention to detail and ability to think beyond the immediate issues, while maintaining sight of the bigger picture, was impressive."

"The firm as a whole offers a comprehensive service of excellence for those seeking the best advice and complete discretion as to their private affairs."

"Payne Hicks offers the right home for the most discerning and high-profile clients. Their individual needs will be met by a highly qualified team with a depth of experience of such cases. Clear-sighted strategy and legal expertise will guide their case at every stage."

"They are absolutely fantastic on all levels. They have such a personalised approach to service and care. They are very responsive and committed to clients."

"They are incredibly client-friendly and a very safe pair of hands. Clients go to them because they trust them to give the unvarnished truth in a way that is pleasant."

The full Chambers UK 2021 guide can be found here