

Spear's 500 Immigration Index: Kathryn Bradbury

04 November 2015

Kathryn Bradbury, head of the Citizenship & Immigration department at Payne Hicks Beach, has been recognised as a Spear's Top Recommended Immigration Lawyer and is listed as "outstanding in field".

Spear's writes that Kathryn works across the spectrum of UK immigration with particular expertise in HNW cases under the points based system. The cases include a large number of 'very complicated' appeals, many of which relate to the Home Office's controversial new general grounds for refusal.

The leading magazine quotes that "Barrister sources say she 'probably handles more Tier 1 investor visas than any solicitor in this country' while clients speak of Kathryn in ecstatic and heartfelt terms, describing her work as 'excellent' and 'the best – I had no doubts'.

Payne Hicks Beach congratulates Kathryn on this endorsement. It is a worthy recognition of her expertise in this specialist field of law and her exceptional continued commitment to her clients.

The Spear's 500 is the world's first comprehensive guide to the top private client advisers and HNW service providers. It is regarded as the top guide to the sharpest most experienced advisers around today.

To view Kathryn's profile in the 2015 Spear's Reputation Management Index, click here.

