

Spear's: The Index - Frederick Bjørn named as "Rising Star"

20 August 2014

Frederick Bjørn, associate, in the leading Private Client department at Payne Hicks Beach, has been named as one of the "Rising Stars" in The Spear's Index, first published in Spear's Magazine, Issue 40, September/October 2014. The list is compiled from reviews of peers, independent experts and the Spear's Research Unit. This worthy recognition follows the equally admirable nomination of Frederick for Spear's Young Turk Awards 2014 Tax and Trust Lawyer.

Payne Hicks Beach is delighted that Frederick has been recognised in this way. It is yet another representation of our stellar reputation in this area and highlights the calibre of our internationally recognised Private Client department.
