

The appointment of Emma Copestake by EG

10 July 2020

EG reports on the appointment of Emma Copestake, as a Partner in the Property department at Payne Hicks Beach as of 1 July 2020, first published in EG online on 9 July 2020 and reproduced with kind permission.

Emma's practice encompasses all aspects of prime and super-prime residential property work. She specialises in contentious and non-contentious leasehold enfranchisement/extensions and landlord and tenant instructions, as well as advising on complex funding arrangements and ancillary tax matters. Emma advises private individuals, investors, developers, banks, and institutions. She frequently acts for clients from overseas, often leading teams of advisers in a number of different jurisdictions.

<https://www.egi.co.uk/news/>

Click below to read EG online's coverage