Despite most of 2020 having been spent away from the office and only interacting with colleagues and clients via video chat, email and telephone, it has not stopped senior individuals in the private client sector moving firms.

With this in mind and as 2020 draws to a close, eprivateclient has had a look back at the ten most read people moves of the year. We start today with the tenth to sixth biggest moves, with the top five revealed tomorrow...

8. (01/12/2020) London law firm Payne Hicks Beach added Sam Carver as a partner to its private client team. Mr Carver joins the firm from Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner (BCLP) and was the third high profile appointment to Payne Hicks Beach's private client team from BCLP in 2020, following the additions of partners Martin Paisner CBE and Jessica Henson, as the firm continues to expand its private wealth offering.

Alongside the departures of Mr Carver, Mr Paisner and Ms Henson to Payne Hicks Beach, 2020 has also seen BCLP lose private client partners Damian Bloom, Simon Phelps and Murray North to Taylor Wessing whilst Georgina James joined Farrer & Co from the transatlantic law firm in February this year.
