Who's Moving Where In Wealth Management? - Guernsey Finance, Payne Hicks Beach, Others

Editorial Staff, 2 March 2021

The latest senior moves in wealth, asset management and legal affairs from across EMEA and the UK.

Payne Hicks Beach

London law firm, Payne Hicks Beach has strengthened its dispute resolution practice appointing Georgina Bayley as a partner, with effect from 1 March 2021. She has joined from Withers, following Jessica Henson's recent addition as a partner in the dispute resolution division.

Bayley serves high net worth individuals and families, companies and charities, working on a range of matters, including complex contractual disputes, jurisdictional and enforcement matters, worldwide freezing relief, shareholder disputes, arbitration and contentious insolvency cases.

She has specialist expertise in banking and civil fraud matters and assisting with high-value employment claims pursued in the High Court. She has also gained a reputation for handling judicial review proceedings. Her specialties also include bringing procurement challenges against public bodies on behalf of charitable and educational organisations.
